Temporary Structures for Major Special Events. Coast to Coast

From metropolitan rooftops to waterfront piers, city parks, museum courtyards and the decks of ships – the choice is as wide as your imagination. Wherever you choose to stage your large tent event, providing the blank canvas on which to express your imagination is our mission.

When your reputation is on the line, and there is no margin for error, we know how to deliver outstanding tent rentals on time, on budget and with the utmost professionalism.

Let us show you a few of the innovative, dramatic tent structures we have created for major events across North America. They represent a sampling of the exceptional solutions we create almost daily to support major international brands and world class organizations.
